

New Guides for June 6:

Travel Guide* - Learn more about the weekly newsletters and NFO 2024

Each week until New Faculty Orientation, you will receive a newsletter (like this one!) from the Office for Faculty Excellence (OFE). We will incorporate our "Road to ECU" theme throughout these newsletters and include information and resources that we hope you will find helpful as you get to know our campus, students, and the Greenville community.

Please take a moment to read each newsletter and complete any "to-do" items that apply to you.

On Location - Welcome from the OFE

Located in Joyner Library on main campus, the OFE provides support for faculty in their teaching, research, and service. Follow along with the Executive Director of the OFE, Sarah Williams, as she introduces the OFE team.

New Faculty Check Point #1 - Activate PirateID and ECU Email

As a new faculty member, activating your PirateID will be essential. Your PirateID is used to access your email, Pirate Port, Canvas, and so much more.

Instructions for activating your PirateID can be found here.

For assistance, please contact Informational Technology and Computing Services (ITCS) at itcs.ecu.edu.

New Faculty Check Point #2 - Activate your ECU 1Card

Your 1Card is your ECU identification card. The 1Card office will email you to complete a 1Card application. The application is online, and you will need to upload an image that will be used on the card.

For questions, email 1card@ecu.edu

Community Attractions - Learn about Downtown Greenville

Celebrating 250 years in 2024, Downtown Greenville is one of a kind! Situated between the Tar River and ECU, the downtown area has everything from restaurants and breweries to coffee shops and museums.

 Are you a football fan? Head over to Five Points Plaza for Freeboot Fridays. We love free entertainment that is fun for the entire family! You can also catch performances from local, regional, and national musical acts at Room 108 and the State Theatre.

Follow Downtown Greenville on social media for updates and new events!
